Paul Falgout, Owner with Captain Dudley

Originating in Slidell, Louisiana, this unique lure company has been thriving for over 25 years.

It was established by the iconic Captain Dudley Vandendorre during a fishing trip on Lake Ponchartrain. It is presently owned by Paul Falgout, who is an avid and experienced angler himself. Paul decided to take ownership in this company, not only to be able to fish on the job, but for what the lures offer... a simple experience. Whether it's an experience of watching the sunrise with a friend, the thrill of catching your first keeper, to pass the time, or, in Paul's case teaching your kids and grandkids the love of the sport, the simplicity of fishing has always started with hooking a bait. Whatever your experience may be, Deadly Dudley has a lure to get it started.
